

1. _____ how you _____. (15-16)
 - (15) Paul tells us to pay _____ to how we walk, which means to be careful how we live.
 - Romans 13:13; Ephesians 4:1.
 - (16) He says to make the most we can of the time we have, even though we live in _____.
 - Amos 5:13; James 4:14; Psalm 102:3; Psalm 144:4.
2. _____ be _____. (17)
 - The NLT says, “Don’t _____.”
3. _____. (18)
 - He says getting drunk leads to “reckless living.”
 - Asōtia – debauchery, wildness; a similar Greek word – asōtōs – is used in Luke 15:13 to describe how the prodigal son was living before he came to his senses and returned to his father.
4. _____. (19)
 - The phrase “speaking to one another” points to the importance of how we treat those in the _____ of _____.
 - Hebrews 10:24-25: “provoke” – parōxusmōs - _____, a causing of something by spurring on, or stirring up.
5. _____. (20)
 - He doesn’t tell us to _____ thankful _____, but to _____ thankful _____.
6. Give the _____ of the _____. (21)
 - “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.”
 - Luke 2:51; Philippians 3:21.

If you want to make the most of your time, live in light of eternity.

“Are the things you are living for worth Christ dying for?” – Leonard Ravenhill